Angela began to dance at the age of three at the South San Francisco Recreation Center. At the age of six she continued her dance education at Schumacher's School of Dance and then joined WSPA's Performance Program in 2000. Angela has garnered numerous high-level competition awards at Showstoppers, Showbiz, International Dance Challenge, the California State Talent Competition and various other national talent competitions. She is a graduate of the University of San Francisco with a Bachelor of Arts in Communication Studies and Political Science. In 2010 Angela moved to London, England to complete a Master's in Business Administration in International Business. She finds great joy and happiness in teaching Ballet & Tap as well as Tap to her many students.
