Alyssa Viray, a recent graduate from the Alonzo King LINES BFA Program with a minor in Psychology. Since the age of 3, she grew up training at Westlake School for the Performing Arts. She studied various styles of dance such as ballet, modern, jazz, and hip hop. She was a member of the inaugural Pre-Professional Ballet class in 2009. She has performed numerous lead roles in the Nutcracker, such as Clara, Snow Queen, Princess Flora, and Sugar Plum. Additionally, she performed the coveted role of Black Swan in Swan Lake for WSPA's 25th Anniversary Gala. She participated in numerous competitions around the country and earned many awards and scholarships. She had the opportunity to perform at Ballet Philippines 45th Anniversary Gala and participated in the CMAP Choreographers Festival Internationale. She is a current member of the project based company, DawsonDanceSF, under the direction of Gregory Dawson. While in the company, she performed in the world premier of "The Joy Protocol" in collaboration with Richard Howell, as well as at The Tannery Winter Dance Fest and the Black Choreographers Festival. She is currently auditioning for professional companies and is eager to see what the future has in store.
