

ALEXIS-NICHOLE PINEDA

CONTEMPORARY & JAZZ PROGRAM DIRECTOR

WSPA ALUMNI CLASS 2016

650-757-1244

@alexisnpineda @wspadalycity

contact@wspadance.com

Alexis-Nichole Pineda is a WSPA Class of 2016 Alumna and has trained in Ballet, Polynesian, Modern, Contemporary, Jazz, and Hip Hop throughout her former years as a student. While attending WSPA, she also graduated from San Francisco's Ruth Asawa School of the Arts High School where she furthered her dance and choreographic education. Alexis earned her BFA in Dance - Performance, BFA in Dance - Choreography, and a BA in Education Sciences from the University of California, Irvine in 2020. Most recently, Alexis has performed in SFBATCO's original musical, The Day the Sky Turned Orange which debuted in 2025. Alexis is currently a candidate to receive her Teaching Credential in Dance through CSU East Bay and a Dance teacher at a local middle school while directing the Jazz program at WSPA.