Eddie Mina started dancing at the age of 3 and was self taught until taking hip hop summer classes at WSPA and Schumacher's School of Dance Inc. in his early school years. Through his high school years, he was exposed to many different styles including ballet, jazz, tap, and hip hop. He then moved on to join the Hip Hop ADV General School Program in 2017, and later in the year moved up to Training Ground. Soon after, he worked his way up to join The Company. He is currently in his third season with The Company. He continues to teach at studios around California, including On One Studios, City Dance Studios, and Offstage.
